will wind slowly through Macon's streets, led by the rapidly dwindling remnant of Forrest's cavalry. In the van of the famous horsemen will ride Nathan Forrest, aged seven, grandson of the fighting general. Beside a magnificent white horse, he will be dressed in the uniform of a brigadier-general. The brigade will be under its present commander, General H. E. Tyler.

It is expected that 12,000 veterans will participate in the parade. In the course of his address, General Walker referred to the death of General George W. Gordon, his deceased son, who after he had been chosen commander-in-chief, reviewed the history of the organization and referred to the "principles which he buried under the shattered ruins of the Confederacy."

He then said: "We accepted with loyalty our paroles at the close of the war. We returned to our homes to devote ourselves to the maintenance of peace, harmony and concord. We took our new duties, we faced every trouble, and with a mighty effort triumphantly rose above thousands of difficulties which confronted us. The war had brought us ruin, desolation, defeat, but its hard-earned lessons, self-reliance, patience, persistence and courage, brought us success. We laid down our muskets before overpowering numbers and immeasurable resources. We seized the implements of peace, grappled every obstacle and finally conquered."

"Flow-citizens of Macon, the men who have done all this, the survivors of participants in the greatest war of all time and the conquerors in that subsequent industrial struggle are before you, the grandest heroes the world ever saw. Consider them well; you will never see like again."

Camp John R. Gordon is thronged with veterans, who are well provided for. Every tent is floored, the streets are paved with cinders and special preparations for the commissary have been made.

SKYSCRAPER FOR MALIGNANT DRUGS

Structure in Chicago Valued at $2,500,000 Given Him by Father-in-Law.

A special dispatch from Chicago last night said:

"The Heisen Building, a new twenty-two-story structure at the southwest corner of Harrison and Dearborn Streets, extending through to Federal Street, work upon which is just about completed, has been conveyed by Charles S. Heisen, its builder, to Malcolm G. Bruce, of Richmond, his son-in-law, for a nominal consideration. Greenbaum Sons Bank and Trust Company have underwritten a bond issue for $1,250,000 upon the property, bearing 6 per cent interest and maturing in from two to ten years. The property is valued at about $2,500,000."

"The name of the structure will be changed to the Transportation Building for the reason that it is principally occupied by the traffic departments of railroads with terminals in Chicago. It has twenty-three stories on the ground floor, a double basement and twenty-one stories of offices. About 50 per cent of the space in the structure has already been rented. "It is estimated that the gross annual income of the building is $119,000."

MR. BECKWITH CALLED

Named as Successor to Mr. Semmes at St. Andrew's Episcopal.

A report to the effect that Rev. Cary Beckwith, of Charleston, S. C., had been called by the vestry of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church to succeed the Rev. Thomas Semmes was confirmed last night by an officer of the church. The election of Mr. Beckwith, which was unanimous on the part of the vestry, was held about a week ago, and an answer is expected at any time. Mr. Beckwith, who is at present rector of the 6th St. Philip's Episcopal Church, of Charleston, was born in Petersburg, and is the son of Thomas Beckwith. He received his theological education at the University of the South, Sewanee. From 1902 to 1905 he acted as assistant rector to Mr. Semmes in St. Andrew's, in this city. For this reason Mr. Beckwith is no stranger to the people of St. Andrew's, and his election is a happy one in the eyes of all connected with the church.

GOVERNMENT BIDS FIXED

Subsidy of Steel Corporation Partly Fixed to Pool Agreement.

New York, May 7.—The American Steel and Wire Company, one of the largest of the subsidiaries of the United States Steel Corporation, was a partner to pool agreements with other manufacturers, whereby prices on United States government bids were fixed and the business divided among the pool members, according to testimony given to-day in the government suit to dissolve the corporation under the Sherman antitrust law.

The testimony was given by Samuel J. Bailey, of the office of E. B. Jackson, "supervisor" of the famous wire pools, whose members were indicted and fined a year ago. Bailey acted as secretary of the Horseshoe Manufacturers' Association, one of the seven pools, and explained how the business of the country was managed.

In brief, the rules of the Horseshoe Manufacturers' Association fixed the price per keg at which all members of the association should sell horseshoes, prices being changed when necessary. The witness explained that at monthly meetings, each member was allotted a certain percentage of the business, and in case his monthly sales exceeded his allotment, he was to pay cash into the association equivalent to the amount of the excess.

If they were less, the association was to make up the deficit. A deposited penalty of $1,000 was provided for violation of the rules. In the case of government bids, Bailey said Jackson selected the member who was to make the lowest bid, and instructed other members to bid higher.

CUMMINS SHARPLY CRITICIZES TAFT

Charges Him With Attempting to Coerce Congress in Tariff Legislation.

Washington, May 7.—President Taft was sharply criticized in the Senate to-day by Senator Cummins, who charged him with attempting to coerce Congress in tariff legislation. Mr. Cummins, speaking in support of his metal tariff revision bill, said he understood the President was opposed to any legislation on the metal schedule until the Tariff Board reported upon it.

"I deplore the action of a President in interfering in any way with the work of Congress," he declared. "I have heard a great deal lately about the recall of the judiciary and judicial decisions, both of which I oppose, but I regard these as inconsequential in comparison with the encroachments of the executive branch of the government in the last few years."

Senator Cummins declared he believed it was improper for a President to attempt to unduly influence Congress as for him to undertake to use his power to influence the judiciary in performance of duty. Mr. Cummins declared that the Payne-Aldrich law had failed to meet the demands of the people and warned his colleagues of the result of the coming election if Congress were adjourned without that law being altered.

at hand showing that not more than 25 per cent of the material was cast. In general, the backwardness of farming operations contributed to keep the voters from the polls.

United States Senator John Sharp Williams, Senator-elect James K. Vardaman, Governor Earl Browder and C. H. Alexander were elected delegates-at-large. Without opposition, Williams and Alexander are supporters of Governor Wilson, while Vardaman and Browder espouse the cause of Underwood.

Personal preference of the delegates, however, will have no bearing in connection with Mississippi's vote in the national convention, the delegates-at-large, as well as district delegates, being bound to vote as a unit as instructed by the total vote of the State.

The Democratic State convention will be held in Jackson May 15 to formally announce the result of the primary and select a State executive committee and promulgate a platform.

Texas for Woodrow Wilson. Dallas, May 7.—Instructions given to-day by Democratic county conventions to delegates chosen to the State convention assure a State delegation for the nomination of Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, as the presidential nominee, returns from 178 of the 250 counties in the State giving in New Jersey executive 325 instructed votes in the State meeting, sixteen in excess of the number necessary to control.

Republican returns give Roosevelt 15 counties and Taft 20.

A number of counties reported no Republican conventions, and several will send contesting delegations to the State convention. It is not thought probable that county instructions will prove sufficiently decisive to determine the attitude of the State's delegation to the Chicago convention.

Clark Wins in Washington

Wallis, Wash., May 7.—The State Democratic convention voted this afternoon to endorse Champ Clark as its candidate for President. The vote stood:

Clark, 425; Wilson, 196; Bryan, 136; 1-2; Harmon, 1-2.

An attempt was made to stampede the convention for Bryan, but it was unsuccessful.

Jones Forces in Control

Columbia, S. C., May 7.—With returns from all counties to-day, the change is made in the original estimate of the results of the Democratic conventions held yesterday in this State.

Indications are that forces supporting Ira B. Jones for governor will control the State convention.

Latest returns give Jones, 233; Bleasde, 36; unknown or uncommitted, 62.

For the presidential preference there was a much less decided exposure, only five counties instructing delegates, all these being for Wilson. An estimate of the presidential preference of the delegates made by the Columbia State is as follows: Wilson, 190; Underwood, 8; noncommittal or unknown, 224.

Two were drowned. Rescuers working from this place taken from the boat, the bodies of the two who had been on the path of the Texas flood.

New Weak Place Discovered. New Orleans, La., May 7.—A new weak place was discovered to-night in the Lakeland levee, Mississippi River, five miles from this place. A gap of 100 feet and a gap of 100 feet and nearly 200 negro refugees were rushed there to work under the direction of United States engineers. Many negro citizens have also left town to assist in the work. This levee is on the west side.

REPAIRS TO DOCK

Contract Awarded for Rebuilding Eastern Lock Gate.

At a meeting of the Committee on Improvement of the James River last night contract was awarded to the Old Dominion Marine Railway Company, of Norfolk, for repairs to the eastern gate to the Richmond Dock, recently damaged by the city, the contract price being $120,211.

This merely repairs the broken Dock gate so that the property can be put into use, but the Engineer's Department has put the committee on notice that further extensive repairs are desirable, including new gates, repointing of piers, dredging out the dock and accumulation, removal of the old Trigg works piles, which are a menace to navigation, and other facilities for the use of ships.

Papers in Dispute Will Be Held Until Virginia Decides What Action to Take.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

New York, May 7.—Officials of the State of Virginia are here to-day conferring with Major Emorys Turner, manager of the Anderson Auction Company, relative to a collection of manuscripts that are to be sold at auction. The latter part of the week by the Anderson company. The collection, which is regarded as the most valuable in the United States, was left by Benson John Lossing, the artist and historian, and is thought to have been carried away from the Capitol of Virginia, in Richmond, after the occupation of that city by Union troops at the close of the Civil War.

When it was discovered that the manuscripts, many of which are in the hands of George Washington, General Lafayette, Queen Anne, George I. and George III., of England, were supposed to have been stolen, Major Turner communicated with Governor Mann of Virginia. It was agreed that the sale be postponed until the officials of the State of Virginia examined the historic papers.

Accordingly Richard E. Davis, Assistant Attorney-General of Virginia, and H. R. McIlwaine, State Librarian, were sent here by Governor Mann to examine the documents. They arrived to-day.

In discussing the question of ownership to-day, Major Turner said: "Just before the close of the war, Mr. Lossing went South to collect material for his history. He and letters of authority from President Lincoln, General U. S. Grant and the War and Navy Departments. He was in Richmond for some time."

The State of Virginia has offered no evidence as to its ownership of these manuscripts, but those that are in question would be held until it is decided what action Virginia is going to take. There are about 100 of these papers, and Governor Mann intimates that at least one-third of them are sought by Virginia. After the war the Capital and public buildings of Richmond were plundered, but it is not recalled that the State Library was robbed.

Mr. Lossing died June 3, 1891, in his home called "The Ridge," in the hills of Dutchess county near Dover Plains, N. Y. His widow died there a year ago.

Leaves Matter to Davis

The conduct of Virginia's fight for the recovery of the famous manuscripts, thought to have been stolen from the State Library after the war and now in the possession of the Lossings, is being handled by the State Attorney-General Davis, said Attorney-General Samuel W. Williams yesterday when asked regarding the progress of the affair. Mr. Davis is fully equipped to take what steps he may deem necessary in behalf of the State to regain possession of the disputed letters of Washington, Jefferson and Lafayette.

Much Comment Is Occasioned Daily

Over the Special and Lasting Benefits Recounted in Letters Received

Mr. Early Bever, of South Thirty-fifth Street, this city, made the following statement recently in connection with "Tona Vita," the medicine that is now being introduced with such great success in Richmond.

Mr. Bever said: "I had been in a most miserable condition, physically, and was almost a nervous wreck with pains in my head and back and a sour stomach. All this was due to a severe sick spell of a few years ago, which left me in this condition. My work was very exacting and only aggravated this condition."

"I want to say for the benefit of some one else who is suffering as I was that I consider 'Tona Vita' the ideal remedy for troubles of this kind, and I think there is no remedy that equals it. I know, for I used it, and saw beneficial results almost immediately."

The specialists who are introducing "Tona Vita" in Richmond, are giving demonstrations of what the medicine will do in five minutes, and the Richmond public are flocking to the store where they are located. One of the specialists said that "Tona Vita" will break all records in this country; people are just beginning to realize what a great preparation it is.

Thousands upon thousands of men and other large cities are afflicted with general debility. The entire system becomes affected in such cases, and nervousness, stomach trouble, headache, backache, despondency and loss of vitality result. "Tona Vita" will work wonders in such cases in a remarkably short time."

"We have predicted all along that every man or woman afflicted with nervous debility, who would give 'Tona Vita' a fair test, would become a walking advertisement for our remedy, and judging from the results in Richmond, we are correct."

One of the specialists, "Any one," continued he, "who has been a constant sufferer from debility is sure to tell about it when he finds something that will give him genuine relief."

The public do not recognize the symptoms of this modern malady, and it would be useless to say as can be visited the Folk Miller Drug Company, No. 834 East Main Street, between the hours of 9 A. M. and 8 P. M. this week and have the specialists explain these symptoms as well as the nature of the remedy.

"Enthusiasm continues to prevail generally where the new product called 'Tona Vita' has been used. The great amount of good which seems to have been accomplished is the cause of considerable comment on those who have seen its wonderful work."

Case after case of persons who were comparatively nervous wrecks, and had been sufferers from stomach trouble for years, has been reported, and the results of 'Tona Vita' are said to have been astonishing in nearly every instance."
